The Idaho City Fire.

[From the Idaho World, June 20.]

Idaho City has again, for the third time, been made the scene of a very disastrous fire at the hand of the incendiary. There can be little doubt that some diabolically inclined wretch caused this last conflagration, which threatened the destruction of the whole business portion of the city, but which was fortunately arrested within a block of the place of outbreak. We happened to be absent at the time of the fire, on our return trip from Boise City, and can therefore give only such account of the calamity as we derive from others.

The fire was discovered just as the flames broke forth from the rear of the wooden building in which Powell & Coe (heavy merchants, on the corner of Main and Wallula streets,) had their chief sales and retail store. It was about 4 o'clock yesterday morning. The flames spread with such rapidity that Mr. Powell, who had his dwelling room in the front of the adjoining building on Main street, had barely time to make his own escape. He had not time to save even the books, papers, and other valuables of record in the store. The evening before a large lot of general merchandise had been received from Umatilla, and all of it was put temporarily in the front store. In it was also a great quantity of every description of merchandise, shelved and arranged in the usual manner for retail custom and samples for wholesale trade. In the rear room were the safes, the books and papers, desks, show cases for wine and liquor samples, &c.; also the business desk and safe used by Mr. Smith, U. S. Collector of Internal Revenue. One of the two safes contained a large amount of greenbacks, all of which were found, after the fire, in a charred, totally valueless condition.

The loss to the firm, of merchandise, is alone very large, but the greatest loss is that of their books and accounts, notes and greenbacks.

From there the fire soon spread across to the meat market of Sharp & Sayles, and thence up to the brick store recently put up by Bailey Simpson, and occupied by Mr. G. A. Washington, one door below Isaac's brick store on the corner of Main and Commercial streets. It swept before it all the stores, shops and saloons on that side of the street, Mrs. Gallagher's restaurant having been the last building burned.

Quite soon after the alarm, which was given by the bell of the Catholic Church, and by the citizens generally, the hose from the great reservoir on the hill was brought into play. Unfortunately one whole length soon gave away under the water pressure, just as the heavy stream was doing fine execution in quenching the fire, and by the time this worthless length was removed, and the couplings of the remaining lengths were attached, the flames had made big headway. The play of water from the fire hydrant and the able exertions from the men at that point, who also had water passed in buckets from the well of Black & Bridge, obtained final mastery over the fire in Mrs. Gallagher's restaurant, as a portion of the frame partitions and rear wall furnish present marked evidence.

During the fire water was thrown upon the buildings on the east side of Main street, from the reservoir and hose belonging to the Catholic Church and St. Mary's Academy, on the hill just back, and to this aid is doubtless to be attributed the safety of that portion of the city, if not the whole of Main street, for had the fire ever crossed and got into good headway, it is almost beyond peradventure it would have swept everything and again laid Idaho City in ashes.

To guard against its spread on Montgomery street, and above Commercial, to the Luna House, Masonic Hall, St. Charles, and all this portion of the city, active measures were immediately taken. The store building, untenanted, on the corner of Commercial and Montgomery streets, was leveled to the ground by men with axes and hooks. But most fortunately, the flames were extinguished on Main street, as we state above, and the threatened terrible devastation was stayed.

Upon the alarm the whole mass of citizens, keenly aware of the necessity of instant exertion, sprang to the work of saving whatever they could pack away in fire proof cellars, take away in drays or by hand to places of safety. Everyone was busy in this work and in fighting to overcome the fire. The alacrity and skill and presence of mind displayed on all sides gave evidence that our people have learned, through repeated sore misfortunes by fire, to make the best use of their time in preserving their worldly goods and in endeavoring to overcome the dread element, in these frightful emergencies.

The loss of J. B. Emery is very heavy, but a large lot of merchandise stored in his fire-proof cellar was saved. Mr. Emery was absent on a business visit to Boise City, at the time of the fire.

Mrs. Gallagher's loss is small in sum, but very large to her, poor woman, as she has now been three times a sufferer by fires, and had only last Monday paid the last dollar due for her nice little property, with money earned by her own hard labor.

Powell & Coe have still their large fire-proof warehouses stored with goods, but the firm has sustained a terrible loss. Their brick warehouse prevented the fire from communicating to Vantine's residence on Wallula street, but it still required hard work and plenty of water to save that building. The east end is much scorched.

The large Van Winkle flume was again burned for two or three sections, but workmen are already engaged in repairing it.

This last terrible warning ought to call our citizens to a sense of the danger of fires from incendiaries, and urge them all to the employment of additional watchmen for the whole city during the hours of night.

Salmon P. Chase.

[From the Cleveland Herald.]

Our readers know the estimation in which we have held Senator Chase, Governor Chase, Secretary Chase and Chief Justice Chase. We have nothing to take back, for the reason that our opinion was honestly entertained. And as a gentleman of unsullied private worth, and of transcendent abilities, we still accord to Mr. Chase the high position those merits entitle him to. We have been the defender of Mr. Chase, and even at the outset of the Impeachment Trial, thinking suspicion was unduly awakened against him, we reprobated that suspicion, and condemned what we then thought was petty jealousy or personal spite.

But late events have compelled us to believe that Chief Justice Chase is engaged in a political conspiracy to overthrow the Republican party, by defeat of Gen. Grant, hoping that such defeat may elevate himself to the Presidency, or at least to gratify that revenge which takes possession of, and controls, all disappointed aspirants.

We cannot forget that political schism is Mr. Chase's favorite lever. His first elevation to the Senate was by means of a wedge with which he split the old Whig party in the Ohio Legislature. Mr. Chase was one of the originators, and the principal manipulator, of the Free Soil Convention held in Buffalo in 1848, the controlling spirit of which was that unsafe and unholy doctrine, "the end justifies the means." Never was there a like movement in which political knaves as leaders and political dupes as followers, were so remarkably blended as in that memorable convention, for never were leaders more insincere and selfish, nor dupes more honest and blinded.

It is, therefore, in the light of Mr. Chase's antecedents as a political schismatic, and, more particularly, in the broad glare of his course within a very few weeks, that we deem it our duty to raise a voice in warning against him.

We have defended Mr. Chase from many aspersions cast upon him, and would cheerfully defend him still if facts would permit. But the evidence of his intention and strategy to defeat Gen. Grant, of his jealousy through fear that Mr. Wade might supplant Mr. Johnson, and might be nominated to the Vice Presidency, of his avowals adverse to impeachment during the trial; and, above all, his complicity with Johnson men and Copperheads by his acknowledged willingness to accept a nomination from the Democratic party (of course on a platform slightly "colored" so as to avoid too great contrast with former professions) all these things are so conclusive that no one should be deceived.

GREELEY ON GRANT.—The New York Tribune says of Grant that "he was ever a magnanimous foe, and no man is more anxious than he that the bloody, hateful past should be speedily obscured by a genuine fraternity and mutual good will. He says 'the country wants peace,' and no one better knows the wish of the people or will labor more earnestly to carry it out."

DISPATCHES TO THE OREGONIAN.]

DATES TO JUNE 27.

Congressional.

WASHINGTON, June 25.—The Senate took up the Legislative Appropriation bill. During the debate on the clause appropriating $150,000 for temporary Treasury clerks, the President's veto of the Omnibus Reconstruction bill was received from the House. The bill passed over the veto 35 to 8.

Mr. Davis, having first delivered a long eulogium on the President, in the House, on the tax bill, Mr. Schenck made an appeal especially to Republican members to be regular in their attendance during the consideration of the Tax bill. A number of amendments were offered.

A substitute was adopted allowing a drawback of fifty per cent. per gallon on imported alcohol and rum. Sections 52 to 61 were stricken out except 54.

The Committee rose at half-past four o'clock. The Speaker presented the President's veto bill, admitting several Southern States to representation. The message is brief. The President declares that he does not deem it necessary to open discussion upon the grave constitutional objections formerly urged to similar measures. He declares that the bill imposes conditions in derogation of the equal rights of the States, founded on a theory subversive of the fundamental conditions of the Government. In the case of Alabama it violates the plighted faith of Congress, by forcing on that State a Constitution rejected by the people. The bill passed over the veto by a vote of 105 to 30.

The House again went into Committee on the Tax bill at the proviso to insert that spirits forfeited shall be sold for the benefit of Government, and also directing that spirits in bonded warehouses shall be withdrawn within six months and taxes paid.

On motion of Schenck, section 66 was amended by imposing a tax of $4 per barrel on owners of distilled spirits.

Miscellaneous.

NEW YORK, June 25.—W. U. Telegraph stock, 34⅞.

BOSTON, June 25.—Representative Hooper has written a letter, declining a re-nomination.

RICHMOND, June 25.—Senator Sumner has written a letter to a citizen of Norfolk, declaring that he knows no ground on which colored men could be excluded from a seat in Congress, if elected, saying that he should welcome the election of a competent representative of the colored race to either House of Congress, as the final triumph of equal rights. Until this step is taken, reconstruction would be incomplete.

Very little local news has transpired since the departure of the last steamer.

It is understood that the Freeport mills are to be rebuilt immediately.

VICTORIA, June 26th.—News is brought of another murder and outrage. A man named Captain Jack Knight and his partner who purchased a small sloop at Nanaimo to go north, are supposed to have been murdered and their boat sunk near the scene of the attack upon the Thornton, it is believed by the same Indians.

Captain Stevens, of the Nanaimo Packet, has also been robbed of about $600. It appears he required another anchor and went to the wreck of the Growler to get one, when the Indians told him he could do so by going to a siwash camp a little distance away. When he arrived at the place indicated he was immediately surrounded by a number of Indians, a pistol held against his breast and his boat sacked. Mr. Moss, of Bella Bella, has sent the particulars to the Government. These startling and daring outrages have excited a strong sensation in the public mind, and great uneasiness is felt as to the final result.

Congress Triumphant.

Andrew Johnson and the "Democracy" are not so anxious now to have the Union restored as they were a year ago when they were trying to force such shining patriots as rebel Vice President Stephens, "Generals" Battle, Walker, and their illustrious compeers, into Co[illegible]. So Andrew Johnson vetoes every act to restore the Union, and the "Democratic" members of Congress vote to sustain his [illegible] and to keep the Union divided. But this action on their part is not singular or strange. Nobody ought to be surprised to find the party which in 1861 allowed the Union to be dissevered and then declared that it was "unconstitutional" to reunite it, [illegible] all its power to prevent national [illegible]. It is every way fit that such a party should be consistent in its career, [illegible] has lived during these later years without virtue, it should maintain its consistency to the end by dying without repentance. Our "Democratic" Executive tells Congress [illegible] their plan of reconstruction "imposes [illegible] in derogation of the equal rights of the States," and is "founded on a theory [illegible] subversive of the Government." [illegible] feeble parody, echoed from messages which Jerry Black has been writing for him during the last three years. The act [illegible] of the seceded States imposes [illegible] single condition, viz: The ratification of the fourteenth amendment to the Constitution of the United States. This, [illegible] the condition which is "in derogation of the equal rights of the States." To require [illegible] lately in rebellion to ratify [illegible] to the Constitution as the [illegible] of their re-admission is, (so the [illegible] Congress), "subversive of [illegible] conditions of the Government." Let this matter be tried by rules [illegible] by Johnson himself.

On the 6th November, 1865, Secretary Seward, [illegible] of the President, telegraphed [illegible] F. Perry, Provisional Governor of South Carolina, (South Carolina was then [illegible] to ratify the amendment abolishing [illegible]), in these words:

[illegible] the acceptance of the [illegible] by South Carolina as indispensable [illegible] with the other [illegible]

[illegible] 27th October, 1865, Andrew [illegible] to the Provisional Governor of [illegible], as follows:

[illegible] cannot recognize the people of [illegible] as having assumed their relations of [illegible] the Union that admits as legal, obligations [illegible] created in their name, [illegible] war of the rebellion.

[illegible] that less than three years [illegible] Johnson was urging on the [illegible] terms of restoration which [illegible] the ratification of an amendment to [illegible] Constitution,—a proceeding [illegible] is "subversive of the [illegible] principles of the Government." [illegible] has not followed him round [illegible] side of the "circle," [illegible] to look at things from [illegible] and not from the [illegible] of Confederate Democracy.

[illegible] to note here that the [illegible] amendment to the Constitution of [illegible] is now, after a long struggle, [illegible] adopted and secured. Thirty [illegible] ratified it,—two more have the [illegible] necessary to make it a part of [illegible]. There are many who do [illegible] it was indispensable to the [illegible] of the amendment to have the assent [illegible] seceded States; but this [illegible] beyond controversy by the [illegible] of the amendment by three-fourths of the States, instead of by three-fourths [illegible] adhered to the Union. [illegible] policy of Congress is at [illegible]. In opposing this consummation [illegible] notably near [illegible] of the Government."

[illegible] Bondholders."

[illegible] publishes with a list [illegible] in that city for 1867 a list of all [illegible] United States bonds. [illegible] per cent. of the bondholders own $1,000 [illegible] in bonds, and a large [illegible] own less than $500. There [illegible] who hold less than $100 [illegible] a bondholder we find on the [illegible] who has $22,232. The [illegible] ones, and the number of [illegible] and the smallness of the [illegible] large majority of the persons [illegible] shows how widely the bonds are [illegible] the people. The publication [illegible] throughout the country is [illegible] purpose. They show that [illegible] are the bondholders. Nearly all [illegible] of Chicago are men [illegible] whose capital does not exceed in [illegible] a few hundred dollars.

[illegible] did, in violation of custom, usage [illegible] with one Ira Goodenough to [illegible] house without first advertising for [illegible] to do the work.—Herald.

The Mountain Champion thus discourses on the [illegible] of the founders of our Government:

[illegible] of blessed old stupids—according to Northern Democratic doctrine—the [illegible] of our Federal Constitution must [illegible]. Didn't know enough to inspire [illegible] with the instinct, or power, of [illegible], and just naturally forgot to put in glue enough to hold it together! What [illegible] of pettifogging, what a patch-work of [illegible] a puzzle chart of Government the [illegible] of the United States would be if [illegible] viewed through Democratic spectacles. The eminent Virginian who wrote the preamble [illegible]: "We the people of the United States [illegible] ordain and establish this Constitution," [illegible] Democracy constructed people [illegible] "States." And now after they are [illegible] on this proposition, after they put up the darkey and States' Rights and Kentucky Resolutions against Union and Freedom on the fight and lost their pets, how hard [illegible] are trying to steal back the stakes under [illegible] of the "Constitution."

The Salt Lake Telegraph of the 25th says: "If any person has a copy of Enoch Arden and [illegible] us with it for a few days, we shall be extremely obliged." We presume "Bro. Stenhouse" wants to give Enoch and Annie and the other fellow a blowing up because she [illegible] Mormonism and promised to "be [illegible] wife to both of [illegible]."

A distillery is to be put in operation at Eugene City in a short time. Part of the machinery has arrived.

Up to the 20th inst. the subscriptions to the Oregon and Idaho Telegraph at Boise City footed up $4,150.

The Commencement Exercises of Corvallis College took place on Wednesday, Thursday and Friday of last week.

An entertainment was given last week for the benefit of the Episcopal Sunday School at Salem, which netted two hundred dollars.

We have been printing the name of an Indian chief east of the mountains as "E. E. Gant." The Mountaineer prints it, "E-he gant."

The suit brought by Mrs. Wilson against the City of Salem for the ownership of Marion Square, has been decided in favor of the city.

B. J. Pengra, who has been at Washington for several months laboring for the Humboldt Branch Railroad, reached his home in Lane county a few days ago.

The ladies of the Methodist Church at the Dalles gave a festival last week to raise funds to pay off certain debts owed by the Society. Over one hundred dollars was realized.

At a meeting of the Albany Lodge No. 4, I. I. O. F., last week, the following officers were elected: J. F. Backenstos, N. G.; Fred. Beebler, V. G.; W. C. Tweedale, R. S.; W. Colwell, Treasurer.

A correspondent of the Corvallis paper writes: The schooner Mist sailed from Yaquina Bay for San Francisco June 19th, loaded with furs, ship knees and oysters. The schooner Ida May, Capt. Josselyn, with one hundred and ten thousand feet of lumber, sailed on the 21st. She drew 10½ feet loaded.

Says the Unionist: It is rumored that Beriah Brown's recent visit to Salem was to arrange matters with parties here to start a Democratic organ with himself at the helm. We should not regret the establishment of a decent Democratic paper at the capital, but would prefer to see a man of more ability than Brown conducting it.

The Corvallis Gazette of Saturday says: Messrs. Brooks, Burrage, and parties, surveying for the O. C. R. R., East Side, arrived by last Tuesday's boat and commenced operations at once. The place of crossing, as we understand it, is designated, the depot fixed, and the line is being established towards the southern boundary of our county.

The saw mill of R. Y. McCune of Corvallis was burned a few days ago. Most of the lumber about the mill was saved, but the mill was a total loss. Over a thousand dollars was almost instantly subscribed for the relief of Mr. McCune, which he refused to accept. He is in doubt as to rebuilding. This is the second saw mill that he has lost by fire.

The Eugene Journal says: From parties just down from Bohemia, we learn that the number of men now at that camp exceeds a hundred; and parties are constantly going in. There are claims taken on seventeen ledges, and the owners [illegible] busy prospecting them. It was expected that several arastras would be got in running order this spring, but as the quartz appears better than was first supposed, they are intending to erect mills.

Says the Albany paper: On last Friday Messrs. Mitchell and Chenoweth addressed a large and interested audience at Harrisburg, on the subject and in the interests of the Oregon Central Railroad, and at the close of the meeting quite a large number of shares of stock were taken. We learn from Mr. J. H. Douthitt, who is still actively engaged in canvassing the county, that increased interest is manifested by the people throughout Linn county, and particularly in the upper part of it, in regard to the railroad.

The Record reports the following from the Circuit Court proceedings at Salem: Larocque and others vs P. T. Company. Upon demurrer raised to defendant's answer, plaintiffs claimed that the said Company had no right to issue 1,200 shares of stock and sell it at less than par, as was done by order of the Board of Directors, to raise means to pay the company's indebtedness; and also that such stock, if sold, should have been divided among the old stockowners. The facts were, that the capital stock not being all taken, the company ordered sale of stock to sufficient amount to pay its debts. For this purpose 1,200 shares were sold at fifty-eight cents on the dollar, which was a fair price for the stock in the market. The Court ruled that such sale of stock was proper, if made at current rates.

An Old Mountaineer in Washington.

[From the Salem Record.]

Judge Grim has handed us a long and very interesting letter, received by him from our old friend Dr. Bob Newell, the veteran mountaineer, who went East some months since, with the delegation of Nez Perces Indians. The doctor realizes that "great men and smart men are very abundant at Washington," and that an old mountaineer, who has thirty-eight years' experience of the Pacific coast, and has lots of yarns and bear stories to tell, can cut a fine figure and be in great demand where great men are most abundant.

He gives a graphic account of the sea voyage, and the tropical region he traversed, and quite breaks down in attempting to give an idea of New York. He says, "In twenty-three days from Frisco we landed at our great nation's town of towns. I declare, she is a buster." Here he saw General Ingalls, who gave him letters to prominent men in Washington. So he left "that mighty village" for the national capital, where he seems to have found old acquaintances in General Grant and General Dent, and to have a good time generally.

Senator Nesmith gave him letters of introduction that brought the old Doctor into tip-top society and he expressed his obligations very emphatically. He says: "I knocked at Andy's door, and presented Nesmith's letter. He took me by the hand, led me to a seat, asked about Nez and my own mission. He said, 'Have you a letter from Nesmith to the Secretary of the Interior? I will enclose this to him.' He did so, and never was an old Pioneer in better luck than I have been. Grant remembered me, and shook me heartily by the hand. Got to Washington the day before the vote was taken on impeachment. On that day all seemed silent as death. Two hours after the Senate met, the news of non-impeachment spread. Newsboys run hither and thither, men ran to meet them, grabbed papers, and threw the money on the ground. That day will be remembered. Senator Williams was gone to Chicago when I called to see him. We have news of Grant's nomination, and I have no doubt he will be elected."

DALLES ITEMS.—We clip the following items from the Mountaineer of Saturday:

On Tuesday morning commissions were received by Mr. H. A. Hogue as Superintendent, and Mr. D. M. French as Disbursing Agent for the erection of the United States Branch Mint in this city. Once more the indications are favorable that the long talked of Branch Mint will be built.

Our Sheriff, W. A. Ferguson, started below with two candidates, Charles Ingalls and John Powers, for the State Penitentiary at Salem, who were sentenced by Judge Wilson for one year each for larceny.

The Columbia river has been gradually rising since our last issue. It is now within about six feet of the high water mark of last year.

The Superintendent of the Wasco Woolen Manufacturing Company informs us that he is hard at work putting up the machinery. In a few more weeks the whole institution will be in working order and making goods for the market.

Mr. Thomas Johnson of Rockland, W. T., informs us that he has already commenced harvesting his barley and rye. He says that the grain this year is going to be of an excellent quality and in large quantity.

The Wasco Agricultural Society met on Monday last for the purpose of taking the preliminary steps for the Annual Fair, which will come off on the 17th, 18th and 19th of September. The following named gentlemen were elected officers for the ensuing year: President, John Irvine; Vice President, Col. Fulton; Secretary, L. L. Rowland; Treasurer, George Waldron; Executive Committee, James Bird, James Clark, Lewis Davenport, C. Force and T. M. Ward.

THE FOURTH OF JULY HAT, suitable for warm weather, will be introduced to-day, Saturday, June 20th, at J. C. Mensdorffer & Bros. This Hat is manufactured entirely by our firm in this city. It is light, tidy and airy, and price very reasonable. Call and examine.

DATES TO JUNE 26.

LAST NIGHT'S DISPATCHES.

Congressional.

WASHINGTON, June 23.—The Senate, in acting on the general appropriation bill, adopted an amendment by a decided majority, which kills the Globe on the 4th of March next and looks to printing the Congressional proceedings at the Government printing office. It was done on the recommendation of the Finance Committee, through Mr. Sherman, who said he had no doubt that the cost under the new arrangement would be thousands of dollars less than now, per annum.

Mr. Yates introduced a bill for the more economical administration of the government for territories. Referred.

Mr. Harlan introduced a bill granting the right of way through certain public lands to the Central Pacific Road. Referred.

Mr. Conness offered an amendment to the bill concerning the rights of American citizens abroad, providing that if any American citizen is arrested by any Government in contravention of the intent and purpose of this act, upon allegation that naturalization has not operated to dissolve allegiance to their native sovereign, the President is empowered, if Congress is not in session, to suspend in part or in whole, commercial relations with such Government, or when no other remedy is available, to order the arrest and detention of any citizen of such Government found within our jurisdiction, except Ambassadors, etc., and to report such proceedings to Congress upon its reassembling.

The Legislative appropriation bill was then taken up, and Mr. Williams offered an amendment which was adopted, abolishing the bureau of statistics and transferring its duties to the special Commissioner of Internal Revenue. The Senate passed the bill in committee of the whole. Several amendments were offered in the Senate and variously disposed of, and the bill finally passed. The Senate then adjourned.

In the House, the entire session was consumed in considering the tax bill. After much discussion the tax on banks was left under the operation of the present law. The tax on imported cigars was increased from two dollars to two dollars and fifty cents per thousand. The Committee of the Whole then reported the bill to the House, which agreed to all the amendments down to section 109, and a motion to strike out this section was rejected by 57 to 71. This section relates to taxing banks and bankers. The bill then passed without a division, and the House adjourned.

Revenue Matters.

CHICAGO, June 26.—The Tribune's special says the House took very important action on the tax bill to-day. The Ways and Means committee was badly beaten on some provisions. It was agreed to abolish the office of special revenue agents and transfer the duties to the supervisors of internal revenue, of which there is to be one in each Judicial District. Another provision restricts the work of collectors to their own districts and thus breaks up the present system under which one or two collectors have been making returns all over the country.

Price's amendment, declaring that no spirits shall be withdrawn from distillery warehouses till the tax is paid, for any purpose whatever, was opposed by the Committee, but finally carried by 20 majority. This affected one of the most vital parts of the measure, as it was the section which provided for the establishment of export warehouses and made regulations for their government. As matters now stand, all whisky taxes must be paid at the distillery, and there can be no transportation in bond. A drawback of 50 cents per gallon is allowed on all distilled spirits exported. All liquors now in bond must pay 4 dollars per barrel, extra tax, and be withdrawn within six months or be forfeited to the United States.

Washington News.

WASHINGTON, June 26.—The President has nominated Henry A. Smythe, Collector of Customs at New York, to be Minister to Austria.

Senator Henderson was married to-day to Miss Mary Foote, daughter of one of the examining clerks in the Patent Office Department. A large number of members of Congress were present, and several other prominent officials.

Miscellaneous.

NEW YORK, June 26.—Gov. Seymour addressed the Jackson Central Association to-night. He said that all over the country were proofs of the wide spread change in political feelings. He counselled harmony and forbearance at the July Convention, and a Union of all on the single determination to drive the present dominant party from power.

Judge Nelson to day gave a decision dismissing the libel against the steamship Meteor, charged with violation of the neutrality laws, it having been alleged that she was sold to Chile.

WASHINGTON, June 26.—The Senate Finance Committee is already at work on the tax bill and will probably make many amendments, though they are not likely to alter the tax on whisky.

BY ATLANTIC CABLE.

LONDON, June 26.—Mr. Rossan, H. B. M. Consul in Abyssinia, one of a party held captive by the King, has held a public reception.

PESTH, June 25.—Prince Napoleon has arrived at Bucharest.

LONDON, June 25, (midnight).—In the House of Commons this evening, the Irish reform bill was read a third time and passed.

The new postal convention with the United States is still pending in the House of Commons, and the Government is endeavoring to make uniform terms with all mail steamships.

LONDON, June 26.—Prince Alfred has arrived in England.

WORMS, June 25.—The statue of Martin Luther was inaugurated to day in presence of a vast concourse of people from all parts of Europe and America. The King of Prussia and the Crown Prince witnessed the scene. When the statue was unveiled, salutes of artillery were fired. When the applause had subsided, a hymn was sung by several thousand voices with immense effect.

LONDON, June 25, (midnight).—In the House of Commons, this evening, a grant annually to the Presbyterian Church in Ireland was voted.

In the House of Lords, to-night, a great crowd was present, as an exciting debate on the Irish Church question was expected. Many members of the House were on the floor, and the galleries were packed. Great interest, almost approaching to frenzied excitement, was manifested throughout the proceedings.

Lord Granville moved to pass to a second reading the Irish Church Appointments Suspension bill, and said the Fenians had been received with approval and acquiescence by the middle and lower classes in Ireland. Discontent in that country was general, and firmness and decision were necessary to put down seditious movements; but long before this bill had been proposed, Mr. Gladstone had declared that the Irish Church question must be met even if it cost the Whigs their offices. The bill had passed the House of Commons by an enormous majority. If a similar suspensory law was proper in Jamaica, it was still more proper in Ireland, where the Anglicans are less in number than the Catholics, who number 4,500,000, and where there is but one Diocese in which the Anglicans exceed in numbers one fourth of the population. Thus, the Irish Church was a failure as a missionary establishment, and to call its disestablishment a sacrilege was absurd, as its revenues had belonged successively to several different sects.

Lord Palmerston said that Englishmen will never concede until concession becomes surrender. Why should not this bill be passed? It was useful and practical, and its passage would prove that Parliament was ready to treat the Irish case justly.

Lord Grey moved moved that the next reading of the bill be postponed for six months. He had always condemned the Irish Church establishment as an outrage, but considered the present measure as ill-timed, inadequate and indefinite.

Lord Malmsbury complained of the way in which the measure has been brought on Parliament. He quoted from the last year's speeches of Mr. Gladstone, in which he said he gave the Government reason to expect that the contest would not be brought on at so early a day. This was unjust to the Government.

Lord Clarendon thought Lord Malmsbury was inconsistent in opposing the bill two years ago. He denounced the Irish establishment as a church of a few, and proposed to divide the funds among all the different sects.

Lord Clarendon continued by declaring that the Irish Church had failed to carry out its object. Its existence was an injury to England throughout the world. He was afraid of the rejection of the bill by the House of Lords, and deplored the effect of such action on Ireland and the Church.

The Archbishop of Canterbury opposed the bill because he believed its passage was not to redress grievances, but rupture the Union.

Lord Derby said the Lords were ready to disregard and sacrifice all Protestant interests at the bidding of a would-be Minister, and of a majority of an expiring House. He would only protest against the measure as an act of spoliation. He had always supported Papists in their struggles to gain their rights, but would not suffer aggression. The bill would only foster discord in Ireland. He protested against this attack on rights and property which hereafter would extend to England. He said he knew his course was unpopular, but would never seek popularity for its sake only.

The Bishop of London said he was willing to make concessions to conciliate Ireland, but the bill would not effect such conciliation. He did not believe the people of Ireland desired the change which it contemplated. At a late hour the debate adjourned.

LONDON, June 26.—Henry W. Longfellow has been elected a member of the Reform Club.

VIENNA, June 26.—During the stay of Prince Napoleon at Bucharest, a deputation of Jews presented an address to the Emperor Napoleon, asking the amelioration of their condition, and thanking the Emperor for his liberality to all classes of people.

BELGRADE, June 26.—The late Prince Michel left a will, appointing his sister and nephews his heirs.

The evidence in the preliminary examination implicates Prince Karo Georgwich in the conspiracy.

PROSPECTUS
PORTLAND EVENING COMMERCIAL

THE UNDERSIGNED PROPOSES IN A FEW DAYS to issue the first number of the PORTLAND EVENING COMMERCIAL, a newspaper to be devoted to our local wants and necessities, while at the same time its proprietor will labor faithfully to unfold the importance of the commerce of Oregon at large and this whole Northwest Coast. The COMMERCIAL will be independent in all things, and not bound down by any partisan rules to a line of conduct which has for its purpose the success of a political party. Of politics our people have had and are having enough; they demand a public journal which shall devote itself to the material interests of the City and State, and that demand shall be complied with. The COMMERCIAL will contain within its columns matter interesting to every man in the community, be he merchant, mechanic, laborer, lawyer or doctor. It will upon all occasions, when it is proper that a public journal should speak, express the sentiments of the proprietor in a fearless, independent manner. Whatever good judgment dictates should be published, will, "without fear, favor or affection," be given to its readers. A hearty support is expected at the hands of this liberal public, to an enterprise which, if the requisite energy, labor and talent is expended, will prove of vast benefit to every man in the community. We will not promise too much in a prospectus, but let our works prove themselves.

The COMMERCIAL will be a twenty column Daily, printed on beautiful Minion type, and furnished City subscribers at the insignificant price of twenty-five cents a week. By mail or express to yearly, half-yearly or quarterly subscribers, it will be sent at the rate of $8 00 a year.

OREGON CITY ITEMS.—From the Enterprise of Saturday, we learn that, at the last meeting of the City Council, the Willamette Steamboat Co. was granted the privilege of constructing a warehouse at the foot of Second street, on condition that they McAdamize the street to Main, and lay down sidewalks. A levy of 3½ mills for city purposes, 3½ mills for school purposes, and $1 00 poll tax for each male between the ages of twenty-one and fifty, was made and established as the tax for 1868. It was resolved that the road money be paid out only as appropriated by the Common Council. The street commissioner was required to work at least ten men at one time each day. The sum of $200 was appropriated for repairs to Main street at the lower end of the Abernethy bridge.—The Enterprise gives the following account of the drowning of Wallis, last week: On Tuesday last a man named David Wallis lost his life in the Clackamas, near the new paper mill, while engaged in "running" sawlogs for the Portland trade. He had just passed over a riffle opposite the mill, where the logs rolled considerably, and fell off, swimming on ahead of the logs for some distance, then striking out for shore. A boat was sent after him, but he was an excellent swimmer, and no thoughts of his drowning had been entertained, until when within about a rod of the shore he struck a counter current from the mill race, and sunk suddenly to rise no more. He was a young man and bore a good name in this community. We believe he had no relatives in this part of the country.

A RAILROAD ITEM.—The Corvallis Gazette gets off the following good one on the railroad survey: "For the past week some of our people have been nearly crazy on the subject of the railroad, and everybody seems to be excited. In fact, our own pulse has been somewhat quickened by the presence of Messrs. Brooks, Burrage, and other gentlemen with their compasses, chains, levels, and queer little instruments, with which they are running angles, and curves, and filling our streets with pegs and stakes and flags, and the like. Sometime they are squinting, and bobbing, and driving pegs up one street and down [illegible] then they will be careening across some garden, or knocking the boards off a stable or henroost. In short [illegible] to be doing pretty much as they pleased. And our citizens concluded to let 'em, provided they'd [illegible] a few simple questions relative to where the road would cross the Willamette? How far it would run west? Was there going to be a machine shop here? Where would the depot be? Would it effect the price of lots? Was it safe to raise children on the next block? When, all of a sudden, the railroaders became exceedingly non-[illegible]ative, slid around back of the City Hotel, drove a few stakes through Manuel Knight's barn, skedaddled past the Presbyterian Church, squinted through Bush Wilson's piazza, stuck a few pegs on the plat of land [illegible] by J. C. Avery, "swung round a circle" and headed for Eugene City, crossing Mary's river near Mr. Avery's residence and were still agoing, at the last accounts."

[illegible] Timmons; venue [illegible] for twenty [illegible] at 9 A. M. June 29th, 1868.

[illegible] TO REV. FATHER WILBUR.—The Advocate has [illegible] news of a [illegible] accident to Rev. Father [illegible], which occurred on the 16th inst. at Ft. Simcoe [illegible] number of men with teams, were out in the [illegible] sawlogs. And while assisting to drive [illegible] of oxen attached to a wagon out of a crooked [illegible] of the road, he stumbled and falling with his head [illegible] of an ox, it kicked him in the face, fracturing the cheek bone just below the temple. Before he [illegible] one of the fore-wheels of the wagon [illegible] over his shoulder. The wagon was loaded with [illegible] measuring three feet in diameter and twenty in [illegible] verging on the marvelous, yet never-[illegible] that he was not only not crushed by the pro[illegible] but actually [illegible] without the dislocation [illegible]. He suffered much pain for a [illegible] but is now able to walk [illegible].

BOARD OF FIRE DELEGATES.—The regular monthly meeting of the Board of Fire Delegates was held at the Council [illegible], Saturday evening—nine Delegates present. [illegible] of the Board being absent, Mr. S. C. Mills [illegible] President, and Mr. C. P. Ferry [illegible] Secretary.

A communication was received from the Chief Engineer [illegible] Fire Department, stating that the sum of $57 75 [illegible] to the fund of the Department as the [illegible] of a benefit given by Bartholomew's Circus, and [illegible] the propriety of expending it for the improvement [illegible] Firemen's Lot in Lone Fir Cemetery. The [illegible] was referred to the Finance Committee [illegible] to report at the next meeting as to the [illegible] needed.

The Board then adjourned.

[illegible] VERY OLD WRECK.—[illegible] Hodge & Calef [illegible] about a thousand pounds of beeswax, [illegible] has been dug out of the sand beach near Tillamook. [illegible] there was known at a very early day, though [illegible] were ever until recently discovered. [illegible] used to procure it in small quanti[illegible] of that region say they have [illegible] their fathers talk of a vessel which was wrecked [illegible] the bay, and of vast quantities of this wax com[illegible] from the wreck. They describe the seamen as [illegible] and wearing long ques. They were prob[illegible] and from the fact that among [illegible] there are remnants of various sorts of candles, [illegible] the [illegible] was consigned to some Catholic [illegible].

P[illegible] FOR PORTLAND.—The steamship Pacific, which sailed from San Francisco on the 26th, at 11 A. M., has the following passenger list: M. Jones, Mrs. [illegible], J. [illegible] and sister, J. S. Solomon, C. A. [illegible], Mrs. [illegible] and child, E. Carey, D. B. Brown, [illegible] Carey, O. H. Clemmot and wife, H. Wasserman and wife, C. H. Hartley, W. B. Douglass, Mrs. Em[illegible] and two daughters, Mrs. E. Delgaldo, Mrs. [illegible], J. C. Wait, Leon Vial and wife, A. W. Chase, [illegible] and wife, Mrs. Stahl, Mrs. D. McNeil and [illegible], Mrs. J. Grubb, J. B. Palmer, D. Held, C. Olney, [illegible] Westell, Miss Oakley, L. Brooke, George Daly and wife, T. R. Rickey, E. Cordell, J. Bertham, L. A. [illegible], C. Rockwell, Mrs. E. C. Taylor, Miss E. [illegible], D. Clark and 20 others cabin and 43 steerage.

GRAND ARMY OF THE REPUBLIC.—At a regular meeting of Post No. 23 of Portland, Department of California, [illegible] Army of the Republic, held last Saturday evening, [illegible] officers were elected to serve the ensuing [illegible] yearly term, commencing July 1st: Col. John M. [illegible], Post Commander; C. P. Crandall, Senior Vice Commander; J. D. Whiting, Junior Vice Commander; [illegible] Lashmutt, Adjutant; H. B. Oatman, Quartermaster; W. H. Watkins, Surgeon; and C. E. Illsley, [illegible]. The installation will take place at their [illegible] on Saturday evening, July 4th.

U. S. DISTRICT COURT—DEADY, JUDGE.—The following were the proceedings in the U. S. District Court, on Saturday:

Leander Quivey and Wm. E. Sanders; order granting [illegible] and certificate issued.

[illegible] Burke, bankrupt; demurrer to objections to discharge sustained, and creditors have until [illegible] next to file amended objections.

U. S. vs Cyrus Olney; cause continued until the next [illegible].

FOR SITKA.—The steamship Geo. S. Wright is up for Sitka via Victoria—to sail next Wednesday—having been chartered for the trip by private parties. It is expected that the voyage up and back will occupy about [illegible] days, and as most of the trip will be made upon [illegible] protected gulfs along the coast, no better opportunity could offer for landsmen to take a summer [illegible] to our northern possessions.

[illegible] LEG FUND.—The employees of the Willamette [illegible] Works, on Saturday, subscribed $23 25 to the [illegible] cork leg fund. It is a notable fact that almost every [illegible] thus far subscribed has come from working men [illegible]. The wealthy people seem to have very little [illegible] about such trifling matters as the sufferings and trials of a poor man.

[illegible] MATTERS.—On Saturday, the new Board of Directors of the Oregon Central Railroad Co. met in this city and organized by the election of the following officers: President, Jos Gaston; Secretary, E. W. Haines; Treasurer, W. S. Ladd. J. B. Underwood of Eugene City was elected a Director in place of J. W. Nesmith, [illegible]ned.

[illegible] FILED.—Al. Zieber, Sheriff elect, filed his official bonds on Saturday. As Sheriff, he gives bonds in the sum of $10,000 with Jas. B. Stephens, J. W. Hayden and R. A. White, as sureties. As tax collector, he gives [illegible] in the sum of $20,000, with R. A. White, A. B. [illegible], W. I. Leonard and I. A. Davenport, as sureties.

ARRIVED.—The bark Falkinburg arrived at 9 o'clock P. M. [illegible], two weeks from San Francisco. She [illegible] on the 15th June and crossed the Columbia bar, 27th, having experienced but one or two days of rough [illegible]. She brings about 300 tons general merchandise.

[illegible] ELECTIONS.—At the last meeting of the [illegible] Lodge No. 15, I. O. O. F., the following officers [illegible] for the ensuing term: W. W. Spaulding, N. G.; Joseph Bachman, V. G.; I. S. Rosenbaum, R. S.; [illegible], Treasurer; J. Stitzel, P. S.

[illegible] Rev. Father Bouchard lectured last evening in the Catholic Church on "The triumphs of the Catholic [illegible] over Heresy and Infidelity."

[illegible] THANKS.—Mr. G. M. Long has our thanks for a box of very fine cherries. They were seedlings of excellent flavor and good size, from a tree which he says was planted fourteen years ago by his wife.

OREGON PRODUCTS.—The following were the receipts, on Saturday: Per Alert—182 sks flour, 240 gunnies wheat, 100 gunnies oats, 254 gunnies feed, 23 bales wool and 6 boxes butter.

PRACTICE.—The Pioneers will meet for practice at their grounds, at 6 o'clock, this afternoon, and it is desired that the members, generally, turn out.

SEE NOTICE of "Safe for Sale" in advertising columns to-day.

FOR THE FOURTH.—The steamer Ranger, Capt. Fisher, will leave Monticello for Portland on the morning of the Fourth at 3 o'clock. She will go down to Oak Point on Friday an return to Monticello the same evening—leaving the last named place on the morning of the Fourth in time to enable those wishing to participate in the celebration at Portland to reach the city before the exercises of the day commence.

THERE IS A FEW HANDSOME SILK CLOAKS left yet, which positively must be disposed of before the Fourth. Also, a nice lot of Straw Goods, which must be sold regardless of cost. Ladies, call on MRS LEVI, and judge for yourselves.

TO THOSE IN WANT OF PHOTOGRAPHS, we would say that now is a first-rate time to visit Buchtel's Gallery, where the latest and finest styles may be had—J. H. Montgomery, operator.

WE CALL ATTENTION to the fine assortment of Parlor Suits and Marble Tables at the Warerooms of Hurgren & Shindler. The work looks beautifully and well done, and as they buy their frames from manufacturers of reputation at the East, are put together and upholstered by workmen of many years' experience here, we do not see that there is any need that any Oregonian should be so foolish as to buy in San Francisco Parlor Suits for more money than what a better class of goods can be furnished here by Messrs. Hurgren & Shindler.

THE BROADWAY STYLES OF BOYS' HATS received per last steamer, and for sale by J. A. Daly, 103 Front street.

Having used the "GROVER & BAKER SEWING MACHINE" for many years, I take great pleasure in recommending it to the public, as I believe it superior to all others that have come under my notice. MRS. MATTHEW CROOKS.

G. VENARD,
CHARTRES COFFEE!
Manufactory Established in June, 1851.
STEAM POWER, NOS. 625 AND 627 FRONT ST.
HAS CONSTANTLY ON HAND GROUND AND ROASTED COFFEE, GREEN COFFEE of the best qualities CREAM OF TARTAR and SPICES of all sorts.
The undersigned, who has always enjoyed public confidence for the excellent quality of his Coffee, neglects nothing to justify the good name acquired by his productions, the sale of which daily increases. The acknowledged superiority of his merchandise, which commands here, and in the markets of the interior, a relatively higher price, excites the cupidity of some manufacturers, and every day he sees increasing the number of those who, by counterfeit or imitation of his mark, seek to deceive the public, palming upon them their inferior productions for the genuine G. VENARD CHARTRES COFFEE. This fraud can deceive nobody after a trial, but only adds to the favorable opinion of the consumers, the very flattering though unwilling testimony of the counterfeiters. Nevertheless, buyers should be forewarned, and placed on their guard against this practice.
BEWARE OF COUNTERFEITS.
Each package bears the signature of G. VENARD.

HOSTETTER'S
CELEBRATED STOMACH BITTERS!
A Pure and Powerful Tonic,
Corrective and Alterative, of wonderful efficacy in Diseases of the STOMACH, LIVER AND BOWELS.
PROTECTIVE PROPERTIES.
Prevents Fever and Ague and Billious Remittent Fevers; Fortifies the System against Miasma and the evil effects of unwholesome water; invigorates the organs of digestion and the bowels;
Steadies the Nerves and tends to Prolong Life.
REMEDIAL PROPERTIES.
Cures Dyspepsia, Liver Complaint, Sick and Nervous Headache, General Debility, Nervousness, Depression of Spirits, Constipation, Colic, Intermittent Fevers, Sea Sickness, Cramps and Spasms, and all complaints of either sex arising from Bodily Weakness, whether inherent in the system or PRODUCED BY SPECIAL CAUSES.
NOTHING THAT IS NOT WHOLESOME, GENIAL, and restorative in its nature, enters into the composition of HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS. This popular preparation contains no mineral of any kind; no deadly botanical element; no fiery excitant; but is a combination of the extracts of rare balsamic herbs and plants, with the purest and mildest of all diffusive stimulants.
The weak stomach is rapidly invigorated, and the appetite restored by this Tonic, and hence it works wonders in cases of Dyspepsia, and in less confirmed forms of Indigestion. Acting as a gentle and painless aperient, as well as upon the liver, it also invariably relieves the Constipation superinduced by irregular action of the digestive and secretive organs.
Persons of feeble habit, liable to Nervous Attacks, Lowness of Spirits, and Fits of Languor, find prompt and permanent relief from the Bitters. The testimony on this point is conclusive, and from both sexes.
As a Genuine Tonic, HOSTETTER'S BITTERS produce effects which must be experienced or witnessed before they can be fully appreciated. In cases of Constitutional Weakness, Premature Decay, and Debility and Decrepitude arising from old age, it exercises the electric influence. In the convalescent stages of all diseases it operates as a delightful invigorant. When the powers of nature are relaxed, it operates to re[illegible] and re-establish them.
Last, but not least, it is the only safe stimulant, being manufactured from sound and innocuous materials, and entirely free from the acrid elements present more or less in all the ordinary tonics and stomachics of the day.

The Last Hours of Queen Elizabeth

[illegible] have elapsed since the death of [illegible] Queen, yet we are still unable cor[illegible] her charcter We move through the chill of mighty shadows created by ourselves, and instead of seeking to disperse them, suffer them irresistibly to influence our [illegible] Such as she was, however when death seemed to be preparing to lay his icy hands upon her form, all England thrilled with anguish. During the forty five years of [illegible] which cast down forever the power of [illegible] in England, and inaugurated the [illegible] she had stood at the head [illegible] sovereignty, bubbling to the [illegible] she was with fierce Celtic blood, and [illegible] position with indomitable [illegible] yet all the while hardly knowing what [illegible] the fangs of the old church still gripped her [illegible] and regulated much of her [illegible] and modes of thinking Her [illegible] were internal, or known [illegible] her [illegible] friends.' In the eyes of the [illegible] had always appeared to be [illegible] of Protestantism, that is [illegible] belief and speculation and [illegible] had hailed her presence [illegible] as that of a religious [illegible] Here, then, was more than sufficient [illegible] the passionate ardor with which [illegible] true English blood, with Raleigh at [illegible] head, clung to the old Queen They [illegible] her looks they reckoned with profound [illegible] the years she had lived, and the [illegible]ity that she could not live many more [illegible] only by degrees, with strange re[illegible] and adversion, that they gave credit [illegible] of her failing health which [illegible] became more frequent and alarm[illegible] [illegible] forth like black midnight from [illegible], and falling like the first symp[illegible] [illegible] upon the bewildered nation [illegible] at Whitehall that the symptoms of [illegible] first became visible, upon [illegible] the advice of her physicians, she [illegible] the mild air of Richmond But the [illegible] going on within her was not so [illegible] as with Nemesis Essex [illegible] the regret she felt, [illegible] not [illegible] feeling it. His [illegible] Raleigh, Cecil, Cob[illegible] [illegible] the members of her Privy [illegible] the Earl as a State [illegible] him in a [illegible] They approved what had [illegible] approved it too; but af[illegible] [illegible] in woman to the [illegible] not and did not approve it What [illegible] may have been signifies [illegible] could for a while act as others [illegible] and did act so as to impose even [illegible]—but the torrent of feeling [illegible] to be stemmed, [illegible] the endeavor, [illegible] prostration upon the floor, re[illegible] by man or woman, food and physic alike, and resolving [illegible] the [illegible] she believed herself to [illegible] by voluntary death. Messal[illegible] [illegible] and deserted waiting for [illegible] in the gardens of Rome, pre[illegible] far less touching spectacle than the [illegible] Queen closing her glorious ca[illegible] [illegible], for her abstinence from all [illegible] amounts to no[illegible]

When all but insen[illegible] [illegible] was lifted from the carpet and plac[illegible] [illegible], where by the clergy present her [illegible] sought to be directed toward [illegible] endeavor to wring from [illegible] of the person whom she desired [illegible] and by interpreting what [illegible] show according to [illegible] the recognition [illegible] the spirit of the great [illegible] her kinsmen, as a [illegible] had been [illegible] about her death-bed, [illegible] the palace, and fled [illegible] the welcome tidings [illegible] Perhaps, in the experience of [illegible] the death-bed of a sover[illegible] [illegible] with so much solicitude [illegible] may perhaps inspire, [illegible] with Elizabeth the light [illegible] should be put out, and [illegible] be forced back, as on the succes[illegible] [illegible], through torrents of blood, [illegible] of Hildebrand and Leo X

[illegible]onfederate Bondholders in England

[illegible] following is from the Pall Mall Gazette

[illegible] of the Confederate loan [illegible] hope that they will yet re[illegible] back, notwithstanding the long [illegible] discharges which they have [illegible]. The original subscribers, with ver[illegible] [illegible], and those persons whose names [illegible] have been privately put down for stock [illegible] have given up such pleasing dreams, [illegible] of their interest outright. In the [illegible] history of the war comfortable sums were [illegible] by judicious sale and transfer. The bond[illegible] of to-day are not supported by powerful [illegible] and their prospects are conse[illegible] somewhat gloomy Mr W Morgan, how[illegible] [illegible] from London on their behalf to an American journal with the view of establishing the theory that the demands of the holders are not prejudiced by the failure of the South to establish its independence The bonds stipulate that [illegible] shall be made "six months after the ratification of the treaty of peace," but our New York contemporary points out that this phrase is not strictly equivalent to the 'termination of the war," and that as a matter of fact no treaty of [illegible] has yet been ratified, or ever will be ratified On this ground, therefore, the claim for payment is not made out There are some we believe, who [illegible] that it is the duty of the United States Government to pay off the bonds But that im[illegible] does not generally prevail at Washington. There have been instances known of the conqueror compelling the conquered to pay the [illegible] of the war, but we cannot recall any [illegible] for requiring the winning side to undertake the liabilities of the losing one Confederate [illegible]holders, except those who sold out quietly at first, were always sanguine mortals but that after the Southern debt has been formally repudiated they should still suppose it will ever be paid, shows a confidence which many foreign powers would be very glad to observe in their English [illegible]. If this instance the confidence is not appreciated, and it is therefore not likely to meet with the expected reward

A Boston man has a toy barometer on exhibition, which consists of a miniature cottage with two doors. At one of these stands a man clad in purple and fine linen, while at the other appears a female arrayed in like apparel. If there are signs of rain the man steps boldly out of doors, while the woman shrinks [illegible] the cottage. But if the signs are favorable, the woman goes forth to shop and gossip, while the man stays at home and tends house and baby.

THESE WHEELS, UNEQUALLED AND UNRIVALLED in the United States or the world have been fully tested on this coast, many being in use at this date, driving all kinds of machinery, Saw Mills Flour Mills, Quartz Mills, Woolen Factories, &c , &c

CAUTION.

To all whom it may concern I hereby give notice that the so-called Shipley's Pacific Turbine Water Wheel" is a direct infringement and copy of the James Leffel's American Double Turbine Water Wheel " and its manufacture and use is hereby prohibited Any person or persons making using constructing or vending said Water Wheels make themselves liable to heavy damages and penalties Parties interested will take notice for I shall prosecute said infringements to the utmost extent of the law

That all may know I mean what I say and am not playing "bluff" I give the following extract from a legal opinion on this subject from one of the most eminent Patent Attorneys in the United States.

Washington D C, April 17, 1868

"Mr A Myers—In accordance with your request we have examined the patents of Shipley on Water Wheels and are clearly of the opinion that they both infringe the Leffel's patents. In both of Shipley's Wheels he uses the upper and lower tiers of buckets precisely as Leffel does and in this he clearly infringes The fact that Shipley has applied another series of buckets in addition to those used by Leffel does not relieve him from the consequences of infringement at all He has no right to use those two tiers of buckets whether used with a third or any other number of tiers added It is a clear infringement Respectfully yours,
DODGE & MUNN

I hereby give notice that I will prosecute every infringement on our Patents whether it is the maker user buyer or seller Every infringement whether our claims are used in whole or in part will be prosecuted

CAUTION.

Horrible Diseases.

How many thousands of persons both male and female are there who are [illegible] out a miserable existence from the effects of secret indulgence or from disease absorbed into the system [illegible] their pallid emaciated [illegible] broken down constitutions [illegible] the happiness of marriage or the enjoyment of life [illegible] Send [illegible] to Dr Gibbon a physician who has made private diseases a specialty for years and who is certain to cure the most inveterate cases without mercury or any injurious drugs It is important to those who are afflicted and to all who are interested in the welfare of their friends to be careful of the many pretended doctors who infest all cities publishing their skill in curing all diseases in a few days imposing upon the public by using the names of eminent physicians from Europe and other places Be therefore careful and make strict inquiry or you may fall into the hands of those charlatans

Seminal Weakness

Seminal Emissions the consequence of self abuse This solitary vice or [illegible] is practised by the youth of both sexes to an almost unlimited extent producing with unerring certainty the following train of [illegible] noises like the rustling of leaves and rattling of chariots uneasiness about the loins weakness of the limbs confused vision, blunted intellect loss of confidence diffidence in approaching strangers a dislike to form new acquaintances a disposition to shun society loss of memory hectic flushes pimples and various eruptions about the face furred tongue fetid breath coughs consumption night sweats, monomania and frequent insanity If relief be not obtained speedily apply immediately either in person or by letter and have a cure effected by his new and scientific mode of treating this disease which never fails of effecting a quick and radical cure Dr G will give One Hundred Dollars to any person who will prove satisfactorily to him that he was cured of this complaint by either of the San Francisco quacks

Caution to the Unfortunate

Beware of the San Francisco quacks and pretenders who with bogus sworn certificates delude the unwary Some of the self styled doctors whose names are to be found in the daily and weekly newspapers of San Francisco and other places are tradesmen and [illegible] too lazy to work at their trades Some are tinmen [illegible] shoemakers newspaper carriers intelligence office keepers etc Look over the San Francisco Directory and you will not find their Medical Institutes in it, but you will find their former occupations in it Look at the Directory for 1862 and 1863 The only way to avoid imposition is to make enquiry—it will cost you nothing and may save you many regrets for as advertising physicians in eight cases out of ten are bogus there is no safety in trusting any of them unless you know who and what they are Dr Gibbon [illegible] deceive people by exhibiting bogus titles certificates pretended patients letters, etc Dr Gibbon will satisfy persons who may call at his office of his ability to treat diseases that he proposes to cure
